

Jill Goslinga appointed Grant Thornton Faculty Fellow

Jill Goslinga has been appointed Grant Thornton Faculty Fellow at the Fisher School of Accounting. The fellowship provides a salary supplement and funds to support professional development. Grant Thornton LLP is the U.S. member firm of Grant Thornton International Ltd, one of the world's leading organizations of independent audit, tax and advisory firms. The firm operates 54 offices across the United States with more than 500 partners and 6,000 employees. Grant Thornton serves a broad range of clients, including publicly and privately held companies, governmental agencies, financial institutions, and civic and religious organizations.

Jill teaches ACG 2021, Introduction to Financial Accounting, in the undergraduate program. She also teaches ACG 5005, Financial Accounting, and ACG 5075, Managerial Accounting, for the specialized graduate programs in the college.

She was instrumental in transforming the Introduction to Financial Accounting course into an engaging electronic platform format taken by over 1,500 students each year. Her effort in the classroom was recognized by students who selected her as the Undergraduate Faculty Member of the Year – Fisher School of Accounting (2009-2010), awarded by the Warrington College of Business Administration.

Jill graduated with her Bachelor of Science in Accounting degree from the Fisher School in 2000, earning high honors. She went on to earn her Masters of Accounting and Juris Doctor degrees here at the University of Florida in 2004, graduating in the top 5% of her class for her Juris Doctor. Jill is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and is a member of the Florida Bar.
